

---

Judy and the family have been so helped through this difficult time with such support in so many different ways, and wanted to thank you all.

Peter dictated a letter to Judy on January 21 addressed to "All my dear friends":

"I have been inundated with kind messages and gifts. I am sorry I am not able to contact each of you to say how grateful I am, and how much I love you all."

- Peter.